From: Financial Times Briefing <FT@emailbriefings.ft.com>
To: ehbarak1@gmail.com
CC:
Date: Tue, 7/30/2013 3:29:39 PM
Subject: US Morning Headlines: Barclays has Â£12.8bn balance sheet hole, EDF quits U...

To view this email as a webpage, click here

Tuesday July 30 2013

FINANCIAL TIMES - US HOMEPAGE

Barclays has £12.8bn balance sheet hole

Bank announces £5.8bn rights issue and further £2bn of provisions to cover mis-selling while shares slide in early morning trade

EDF quits US nuclear market over shale gas

China injects funds into money markets

Loeb ratchets up push to force Sony split

BP profits well below market expectations

VIDEO

Emerging risk to developed world

People used to say emerging markets had 'decoupled', making them immune to recession in the developed world. Now, the concept has been upturned. Peter Oppenheimer, chief global equity strategist at Goldman Sachs, explains to Long View columnist John Authers that Europe is now only too exposed.

MARKETS

Europe stocks flat after Tokyo rallies

Equities post gains after mixed economic readings from Japan, while caution grows ahead of Federal Reserve meeting and US jobs data

Fundamentals vs the Fed: which will win?

Aussie falls on rate cut speculation

Barclays shares slide after cash call

US money market funds return to EU banks

WORLD NEWS

Manning verdict due in WikiLeaks trial

Hearing has run in parallel with debate over US surveillance provoked by Edward Snowden, who is now in Moscow, leaking other material

Spain on track for return to growth

Japan suffers industrial output drop

Doubt cast on Israeli-Palestinian talks

EU's Ashton meets Morsi for talks

US NEWS

JPMorgan to settle over power charge

Payout of about $400m would follow a $470m fine levied against Barclays this month when Ferc found British bank had manipulated electricity markets

White House hails benefits of 'Obamacare'

'Green' but cheaper fuels required

FBI breaks up US child sex ring

The Macro Sweep: UK, US, Turkey

US & CANADIAN COMPANIES

Centrica to buy US oil group in $1bn deal

UK energy group's proposed acquisition from Hess will make it the biggest supplier of gas to businesses on the US east coast

Saks / Hudson's Bay: a strong fit

Qualcomm and Alcatel in 'small cell' deal

Apple supplier faces labour criticisms

Tourre lawyers call no witnesses

Please send us your feedback about this email

follow us on:

twitter facebook google plus linkedin

Tools: Your account | Portfolio | Email Briefings | Price alerts | Keyword alerts | RSS feeds | Subscribe to FT.com

Email: Change Briefings | Unsubscribe | Change Email Address | Forward this email to a friend | Privacy Policy | About Us | Help

© THE FINANCIAL TIMES LTD 2013
You have received this email because you have signed up from the NBE preference page.
This email was sent by a company owned by Pearson plc, registered office at 80 Strand, London WC2R 0RL.
Registered in England and Wales with company number 53723.